Q1. Michael cut his knee while he was playing football.

A first-aider put a bandage over the cut.

(a) A bandage helps to stop a cut getting dirty or infected.
Give the name of one type of micro-organism which can infect a cut.

.....

1 mark

(b) While he was cleaning Michael's knee, the first-aider wore rubber gloves.

(i) Give one reason why wearing rubber gloves is important for the first-aider's health.

.....

.....

1 mark

(ii) Give one reason why it is important for Michael's health that the first-aider wears rubber gloves.

.....

.....

1 mark

Maximum 3 marks

Mark schemes

Q1.

(a) any one from

- bacteria

  do not accept 'germs' or 'microbes'

- viruses

- fungi

1 (L4)

(b) (i) to stop micro-organisms passing from Michael to the first-aider

accept 'bacteria' or 'viruses' or 'fungi' or 'microbes' or 'germs' for micro-organisms accept 'to stop blood getting on the first-aider'

1 (L3)

(ii) to stop micro-organisms passing from the first-aider's hands to the cut or to Michael accept 'bacteria' or 'viruses' or 'fungi' or 'microbes' or 'germs' for micro- organisms accept 'rubber gloves are sterile or cleaner than hands'

accept 'to prevent the spread of infection or HIV or AIDS' as an alternative to one of the answers only

1 (L3)

[3]