Q1. The drawing shows a plant called Tillandsia.

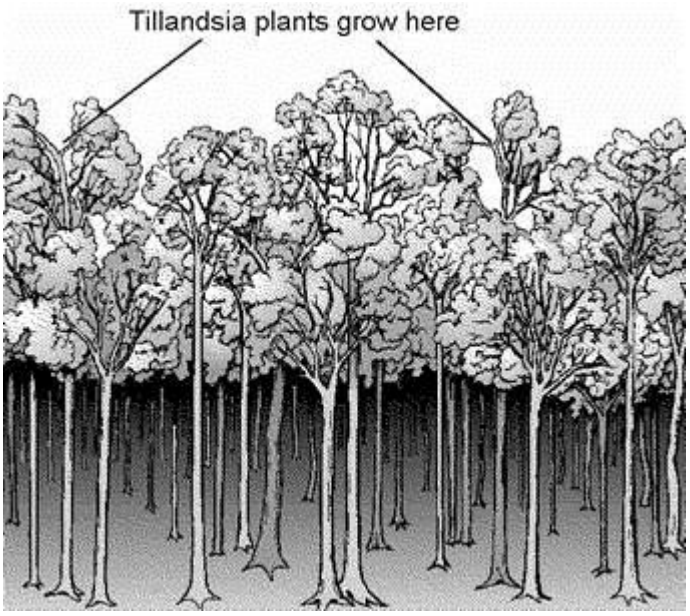

(a) (i) The leaves of this plant absorb light.
Why do plants need light?

.....

1 mark

(ii) Tillandsia plants grow on the high branches of trees in rain forests.

not to scale

These plants cannot grow well on the lowest branches.
Explain why.

.....

.....

1 mark

(b) Tillandsia plants do not have root hairs on their roots.

What two substances do most plants absorb through their root hairs?

1. .....

2. .....

2 marks

(c) Which diagram below shows a root hair?
Tick the correct box.

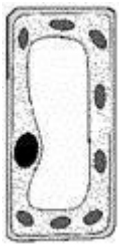

☐

A

☐

B

☐

C

☐

D

not to scale

1 mark
Maximum 5 marks

Q1.

(a) (i) any one from

- to make food or glucose or sugar or starch
- photosynthesis
  accept 'for growth'

1 (L3)

(ii) any one from

- there is not enough light
  accept 'no light' or 'no Sun'
- there is less light accept 'light cannot reach them'
  do not accept 'because plants need light'

1 (L3)

(b) any two from

- oxygen
- water
- minerals or nutrients accept a named mineral such as 'nitrate'
  accept for two marks two named minerals such as 'nitrates' and 'phosphates'

2 (L4)

(c) B ✓

if more than one box is ticked, award no mark

1 (L4)

[5]